Grand Knight's Report

I attended the 113th annual Virginia State Convention in Roanoke April 26-28. A requiem Mass was said for the souls of the Brother Knights who passed away throughout the state this past year to include: Donald Firer, Henry "Buz" Goforth, SK Nathaniel Long, and SK Conrad Isak. Nominations and elections will be held on May 20th for new officers. An open officer's meeting will be held on May 6th. No speakers or entertainment has been scheduled for that evening. All council members are invited to attend.

As a gesture for the year of faith, I would like to purchase inexpensive rosaries ($24.95) and inexpensive Miraculous Medals ($49.95) and order Knights of Columbus rosary guides to be passed out to our fellow parishioners (with our Pastor's permission of course).

After consulting with Bob Maher, this is what he said we need to do about possible 3rd degree exemplifications in Charlottesville. 3rd degrees are planned well in advance, so we need to check the state schedule to see where we possible fit in the schedule. We need to contact the principle of Charlottesville Catholic School and request the gym, kitchen, and two classrooms. One month prior to the Degree, the District Deputy needs to send invitations to the other districts. The Grand Knight needs to receive RSVPs. As host council, we need to have at least 11 people to help with food, setup, and takedown.

Our council's KOVAR collections went well. Holy Comforter collected $125 after the Masses. On April 21st, we collected roughly $690 at the pancake breakfast at Church of the Incarnation. Thanks to Norm Balwinski for leading this effort. Other volunteers included Bill Phillips, Jesse Boeckermann, Larry Hance, Bob Marinchick, Mike Cerrutti, Curtis Bean, Frank O'Donnell, and me. Thanks to the wives for helping out. $1600 was donated to KOVAR this year.

There are some local organizations that are requesting fundraising assistance, including Camp Holiday Trails and Without Borders. CHT provides a free camp experience for children with a variety of handicaps, such as asthma, amputations, cystic fibrosis, etc. They need to renovate the camp barracks. We voted to give the proceeds of our Communion Breakfast at Holy Comforter, $312, to Camp Holiday Trails at our last business meeting in April. Without Borders requested that we hold a pancake breakfast on their behalf. Without Borders was told that we would be able to assist them after the summer.

Our council also donated $122 to Virginia Knights of Columbus Charities, Inc. The 2013 designee is Ladies of Virginia (http://www.kofcladiesofvirginia.org/Ladies_of_Virginia/Home.html).

OLD FASHIONED FAMILY COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Our council hosted and sponsored an old fashioned family communion breakfast at Holy Comforter Catholic Church on Sunday morning, April 7 from 9:30-11:00. The breakfast took place downstairs in the lower level social hall between the 8:30 and 11:00 Masses. The menu included ham slices, frittata (Italian omelet with eggs and cheese), and assorted drinks.

Tom O'Rourke led the effort, coordinating the event and all the volunteers. He was inspired by the Pope, which declared this the Year of Faith. The breakfast encouraged families to come to Mass as a group. 74 tickets were sold. Our council grossed $375 with a net gain of $316.

Brother Knights Joe Ciaccio, Jesse Boeckerman, Norm Balwinski, Frank O'Donnell, Larry Hance, Bill Phillips, Phil Carr, Bob Marinchick, Joe Murray, and Charles Ciaccio joined Tom as volunteers.

Three 50/50 raffles were drawn, and a number of door prizes were given out.

All of the proceeds of the event were donated to Camp Holiday Trails during the business meeting in April.

A packed house in the basement at Holy Comforter

Frank O'Donnell and Bob Marinchick helped serve the food

BROTHER KNIGHT ADVERTISING

Brother Knight Robert Neitz of Council 3626 has a handyman business and has performed jobs for members of our council. He is offering a 10% discount to all Knights for most any type of home repair and maintenance services. Please contact Bob at 434-981-3124 or robertneitz@gmail.com.

KOVAR BREAKFAST DRAWS A BIG CROWD

Our council hosted another pancake and sausage breakfast at Church of the Incarnation Sunday, April 21 from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. All the proceeds (almost $500 in net gains) benefit KOVAR (Knights of Virginia Assisting Citizens with Intellectual Disabilities), a Virginia Knights of Columbus charity established in 1971 to provide financial assistance through grants and home loans to tax exempt organizations providing training and assistance to citizens with intellectual disabilities.

Norm Balwinski set up the breakfast as an alternative to standing outside local retail stores and collecting money like our council has done in the past. Norm led the volunteer effort, which also included Joe Ciaccio, Bill Phillips, Jesse Boeckermann, Larry Hance, Bob Marinchick, Mike Cerrutti, Curtis Bean, and Frank O'Donnell. Thanks to the wives for helping out as well.

The Parish Hall was packed after the 9:00 Mass with many people eating the stage as all the chairs and tables were full. Courtesy of chef Frank O'Donnell, bacon was added to the menu on this Sunday.

ELLIS FLINN

A funeral mass was held for Ellis Flinn on April 18 at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church. Ellis Dean Flinn was born on December 22, 1934 in Woodward, Iowa, and died on April 6, 2013, with his family by his side.

Ellis is survived by his wife of 55 years, JoAnne; by his son, Kelton Flinn and his wife Colette Hall, of Charlottesville; and daughter Keri Flinn Smallie, of Richmond; his grandchildren, Benson and Shannon Smallie; and his sister, Doris Cavanaugh.

Ellis was the first in his family to attend college, Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. After college, he served in the U.S. Army. He married JoAnne Engel at the chapel on Fort Meade on August 19, 1957. After his service, they settled in Pittsfield, MA, where both children were born. He became the youngest office that Berkshire Life Insurance Company ever had. The family moved to Washington, D.C. in 1967, where Ellis was a life insurance actuary with the Wyatt Company. Ellis was a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries, a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries.

One of his major clients was the Knights of Columbus and in 1982, he and JoAnne moved to New Haven, Connecticut, when Ellis became Deputy Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus and Chief Operating Officer of their insurance program.

As Deputy Supreme Knight, he and JoAnne travelled to the Holy Land, Rome, and to many other fascinating places. They met Pope John Paul II on several occasions, and Ellis was awarded the Equestrian Order of St. Gregory the Great by the Pope for conspicuous service to the Catholic Church. They also met Mother Theresa. Ellis was truly dedicated to the Knights of Columbus and after he retired and moved to Charlottesville, he was very active with the Council at the University. He loved working with and mentoring the young men.

Ellis loved to travel and took the family on many spectacular trips, including to China. When the grandchildren were young, he would annually take the whole family on a cruise.

Ellis was Past Deputy Supreme Knight and Past Financial Secretary of Fr. Justin Cunningham Council 11324, University of Virginia College Council.

CONRAD ISAK

A memorial mass was held for Conrad Isak on April 20 at Holy Comforter Catholic Church. Conrad John Isak Sr. passed away peacefully on April 10, 2013 at his home in Charlottesville, Virginia after a long battle with colon cancer.

Conrad was born in New Brunswick, New Jersey on July 20, 1929 to his parents Elsie Wenzel Isak and Franz Isak who are predeceased. Conrad is survived by his loving wife of 59 years, Barbara Supenia Isak, formerly of Houtzdale, Pennsylvania and their eight surviving children and their spouses: Janet and Kip Hawley of Pebble Beach, CA, John Isak of Waynesboro, VA, Judy Isak and Tom Czaplicki of Virginia Beach, Carol and Bob Bateman of Stevensville, MD, Marianne and Bill Pecoraro of Richmond, Nancy Hatschbach of San Diego, CA, Babs Isak of Salt Lake City, and Alan Isak of Charlottesville. Conrad has eight wonderful grandchildren: Nick and Chris Hawley, Rachel Isak, Alex, Gabby and Jacqui Pecoraro, and Luke and Elise Hatschbach. Conrad was predeceased by his brother, Charles Isak of New Brunswick, NJ. Conrad is also survived by his sister-in-law Margaret Werner Isak of New Brunswick, NJ and his brother-in-law George Supenia Jr. and his sister-in-law Joanne Supenia of Osceola Mills, PA and numerous nieces and nephews and their children.

Conrad graduated magna cum laude from Rutgers University in 1950 with a BS degree and Lehigh University in 1951 with an MS degree both in electrical engineering. He was a member of two engineering honor societies, Eta Kappa Nu and Tau Beta Pi. Conrad also served as a First Lieutenant in the U.S Army in the 1950's. Conrad had a rewarding 37 year career with the General Electric Corporation, taking him to various locations including Lynn and Pittsfield, MA, Liverpool, NY, Waynesboro, VA, Schenectady, NY, Bridgeport, CT and finally settling in Charlottesville, VA where he retired. He worked on many engineering projects including the Polaris Missile Systems. He was instrumental in developing many electrical engineering related work products including the development of Numerical Control which are now patented. After his retirement from GE he worked for several years as an Adjunct Professor at Piedmont Community College. He was a devout Catholic as a 30 year member of the Holy Comforter Catholic Church of Charlottesville and was a fourth degree member of the Knights of Columbus. Most of all, Conrad loved his family and always enjoyed the many various activities both at his home and at Smith Mountain Lake, Virginia: water skiing, boating, fishing and all the wonderful family based events.

Conrad was a wise and wonderful man with a sharp and witty mind, the best a father and husband could be, a kind caring servant. He lived a happy, full and rich life, being forever in love with his wife and family members. No matter what life brought him he never lost his joy, his smile, his laugh or his sense of humor. He bestowed on all of us an example that few attain. Family was always at the center of Conrad's life and his memory will remain and always be a centerpiece in the lives of his wife, children and their families.

I would be remiss not to share the email below from Barbara Isak.

This is why we do what we do. This IS the charity that gladdens the heart of the giver.

I can't add anything that would make Barbara's words any more meaningful.

Rick Dowsette

I thought Conrad's mass was so glorious. I felt really happy. Should I have felt so happy? The music was so uplifting that I couldn't feel sad. God wanted me to feel happy. I saw the look on your face. You were overcome, too. I heard the notes go right up to heaven. Conrad was beaming!! You all were singing your hearts out. I am glad my neighbors joined you. They wanted to honor Conrad, too. Did you know you all represented 4 parishes? What more could I ask for? You all were so really great. And the Knights, yes, the Knights! How can I begin to thank them all. Their procession gave me goose bumps! Conrad wanted his rosary. And he got his rosary in a big way! You can't get anything better than the Knights in their colorful attire standing at attention. I felt like it was a big production. Might I say a Holy production It took a lot of work and you did it, Rick. You really whipped everybody into shape. It wouldn't have happened without you and Luke who wanted to give Conrad his Rosary. And you and Bill squeezed in all the family desired songs to please us. You all have my utmost admiration! Thank you so much for giving Conrad his last wish. God Bless You! Barb Isak

POSSIBLE SHOW OF CHARITY OUTING

Financial Secretary Larry Hance is interested in and is proposing a possible 'Show of Charity' outing for our council in the spring. Larry and Brother Knight Chuck Rockacy talked about ideas for channeling our efforts at specific locations. One idea is with Our Lady of the Angels, a Trappist Monastery in Crozet. Check out more information at <http://www.olamonastery.org/visit-us/frequently-asked-questions/>.

Larry and Chuck came up with the idea of attending mass and purchasing wares for these nuns for one. The monastery's Sunday mass is at 8:00 a.m.

Larry would like to set up Knights of Columbus 'cash mob' events where we go as a group to support local groups, stores, events, etc. If interested, please contact Larry at hance331@embarqmail.com or 434-962-7492.

UPCOMING SOCIAL MEETINGS

Treasurer Dave Gamache had a few suggestions involving future Social Meetings for our council. Currently, the Social Meetings are held every Monday night at Church of the Incarnation's Stone Chapel. Dave suggests holding future social meetings at Holy Comforter and St. George's.

Also, Dave suggested reaching out to Tom O'Brien, one of UVA's new assistant football coaches. O'Brien coached at UVA with George Welch, and his family was active at Church of the Incarnation.

Grand Knight Joe Ciaccio has also contacted Cursillo to have a representative come to one of our social meetings to give a presentation about their organization.

If you have any ideas for speakers for speakers, activities, or things we can do with our Social Meetings, please contact Deputy Grand Knight Jesse Boeckermann at bach@catholic.org.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Martha Jefferson Hospital is in need of volunteers. As a volunteer you would assist the staff in various areas of the hospital. Orientation and training is provided. Flexible hours are accommodated. You would join the present group of volunteers which now number over 300. Should you have any questions or to join the next orientation session, please call Michele Shepherd at 654-7000 or by email micheleshepherd@mjh.org.

Volunteering at MJH is an excellent way to earn volunteer hours for the Knights of Columbus!

At this point, no blood drives are set for May. Please visit <http://www.vablood.org/donors/> to donate or call Virginia Blood Services at (434) 977-8956.

NEW KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS INSURANCE AGENT

Our new council insurance field agent is Tom Loviza from Richmond. He attended January's council meeting to introduce himself and discuss his availability to do solid insurance reviews of council member's insurance policies and the different Knights of Columbus insurance programs that are available. He is familiar with most products on the market.

Please contact Tom by phone at (804) 307-0086 or e-mail at thomas.loviza@kofc.org.

Life Insurance and Estate Planning

Carol's dad passed away in September. Her mom passed in 2009, so all the estate planning issues came into play.

The first complication was beneficiaries. Since Mom had passed, everyone was sure he had updated them. The reality was that they varied from updated to not changed since the wedding to updated when two of the four children were born. Luckily, we all get along, and Dad had prepaid for his funeral.

Part of the probate process in posting a statement in the paper so outstanding claims can be made against the estate. In Virginia, this period is one year. The result is that assets that pass outside the will are distributed quickly and others have to wait. The life insurance policies and IRAs were distributed quickly. We are still waiting on the bulk of the estate.

So some of the questions to ask yourself are:

Are your beneficiaries named or are they still generically stated (children, siblings, etc.)? (children under 18 will not be given money by the court)

Do you have an executor and does someone have power of attorney?

Are they the beneficiary of "final expenses" policies or will they have to go to other beneficiaries to cover the costs?

Is there enough money in policies and other accounts that pass outside of probate to cover your final expenses including probate?

Do you have assets (house, cars, collections, business) that you wish to pass to a single heir?

Do you want to pass money on to a person or charity without it being part of a public record (will)?

Life insurance can play a key part in solving many of the potential complications of estate planning. It passed outside of probate, is disbursed quickly, passes outside of the will and it covers the need immediately without having to accumulate the money to solve a problem.

Fraternally.....Tom

If you are not interested in a career with the Knights of Columbus as a Field Agent, please do not disregard this email! You may be able to recommend a member (or eligible member) for the position. If you recommend a candidate for this opportunity and they are chosen, then I will pay you a referral fee of $250.

Do you know of a Catholic man who meets any of these criteria?

- Someone who has hit the "glass ceiling" and wants to provide more for their family?
- A business owner who has recently sold their business and is looking for the next opportunity?

A Field Agent with the Knights of Columbus Choate Agency gets the opportunity to start their own business representing Knights of Columbus Insurance and providing financial services to members of the Knights of Columbus. They enjoy a contractually protected territory and begin their business with an average of 400-600 clients. A Field Agent with the Knights of Columbus has the opportunity to earn a professional level income and includes expense allowances, bonuses, health insurance, dental, and vision, disability, 401K, 100% non-contributory pension and paid training.

If you or you know of a Catholic man in your Parish who meets any of the criteria above, please let me know.
